Canada: Proposed Changes to Nutrition Labeling Regulations Published

Health Canada published proposed changes to the Canadian nutrition labeling regulations on June 13, 2015, in the Canada Gazette Part I. The proposed changes affect aspects of the Nutritional Facts Table and the lists of ingredients including mandating how serving sizes are to be declared, updates to daily values, and the way food colors are listed in the list of ingredients. The deadline to provide feedback is August 26, 2015. Read more about it here.

Turkey Extends Market Access for U.S. Origin Dairy Products

On June 15, 2015, the United States Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service's (USDA-FAS) request for an extension of current certification requirements was granted. The APHIS certificate currently used will continue to be valid throughout the granted three-month extension which is now set to expire on October 1, 2015. If no extension or new agreement is reached in the meantime, no products with certificates dated after September 30, 2015 will be allowed entrance into Turkey. If you have any questions, please contact Matt McKnight (mmcknight@usdec.org) or Mitch Bowling (mbowling@usdec.org) at (703) 528-3049.
